“ In any race, it's not just the winner, but those who run the race also matter.

-FEI Duniya Celebrates Awards ”

CEO's Message

Dear friends,

I sometimes wish I could go back to my childhood and if I am granted this wish, I promise to take part in all competitions. My desire to always come first in whatever I did, stopped me from participating when I had the chance.

In any competition, it's not the winners who are benefitted, it's the losers. Losers have something more to look forward to as they strive to exceed the benchmark set by the winner, while winners have to start fresh, all over again.

ICE Awards has proven to be valuable and beneficial to everyone. Judging by the improved quality of the various in-house magazines that we've received over the last two years, it is very clear that our efforts are making a visible impact.

My apologies, to our FEI family members, for being harsh with them, even as they work hard to make ICE Awards a success. But I have always believed that nothing should be ignored, not even a minor point, because even 99 does not have the appeal of a century.

With ICE Awards, Teri Yaad Mein and our AGM, right around the corner, it is my sincere hope and prayer that all gets conducted well to exceed the expectations of Shailaja.

Best regards,

Pratap Nair

Junior Speak

Dear Friends,

Speaking of Awards, sometimes someone's life's work can be an award in itself. One such person is Mr. Narayan Murthy.

I had the greatest fortune of listening to Mr. Murthy, mentor and founder of Infosys and I've tried to re-create all of his words so all of you can be amazed by the greatness of this man.

Founded in Pune, Infosys is 32 years old. At the time, the promoters had taken Rs. 10,000 from their wives to start the company. Their aim was to create company for a professional, by a professional.

Infosys is the most profitable software company in India and the 3rd most profitable company in the world with a gross profit of Rs. 21,750 crores and net profit of Rs. 6,850 crores. They boast of 1,30,000 employees with 91 nationalities. They have 65 sales offices and 62 global support offices with a presence in 32 countries.

Infosys' belief is that one can disagree with the chairman as long as one is not disagreeable. Every decision is data based and fact based, it is only GOD who is trusted.

They believe that sharing wealth with employees will only increase their wealth and if every employee takes the best decision for the company it will help them grow in the long run. Success will come only if we are paranoid of the future and if we respect and work together with our competitors.

It is best to under promise and over deliver. The bad news should always take the elevator and the good news should take the steps.

When in doubt, one must always confide in one's senior.

The softest pillow is a clear conscience.

Risk mitigation is most important for an organization because although a ship is safest on the harbor, it was not built to stay there.

It is important to give back to the society because it is the society that gives you customers, vendors, employees etc. We must not stop until we realise the dream of the Father of our Nation to wipe away the tears of every poor child in the country.

As a family, there are two things we could do: give this legend a standing ovation or try to imbibe these principles in our lives as well.

Respectfully yours,

Abhijeet

Awards

An award is given to a person or a group of people to recognize, honour and encourage excellence in a particular field. Awards are often conferred in the form of trophies, titles, certificates, commemorative plaques, medals, badges, pins, or ribbons. It sometimes also includes a monetary reward.

Awards could be bestowed by any person or institution. However, the recognition and fame of a particular award generally depends on the stature of the awarder.

An award usually becomes such an important part of a winner's identity and those people are then known for the award they're won rather than the things they've accomplished.

Another popular segment are mock awards, which recognize failures or uncommon achievements. They are usually given by people of average repute, such as comical organizations and individual writers.

Some awards are given only after a fee is paid by the recipient.

An awards ceremony is usually a formal event where an award is given to a person or people, with a host or compere, and several categories for the awards.

Winning an award is a prestigious achievement and it applauds one's efforts and persuades one to do even better. This form of recognition in society helps boost one's self esteem, besides motivating others to emulate the winners' success.

But not receiving an award also has its own benefits as the burning desire to win one, becomes a driving force thus leading to advancement; and this Awards Special of FEI Duniya is dedicated to all those who have this burning desire to excel.

To our beloved Shailaja Ma'am

You would have turned 51 today, if you were still here.

Although you are so far away,
our hearts have kept you near.

The pain has eased a bit I guess,
yet has not gone away.

It will always stay a part of us,
until we join you one day.

We send our love to you,
from all our hearts to yours.

Just think, a birthday spent in Heaven,
means you'll spend it with The Lord.

Lots of Love,
FEI Family

Birthday Boy

If we can single out one person in FEI who is a 'master of all trades', it is none other than our birthday boy for this month, Aditya Tewary. He has been in our FEI family since 2004, and has carved a niche for himself as an all-rounder. He made his debut at our Ahmedabad office as an accounts executive. He also lent his skill to the Delhi office for a short while. He successfully grew in the organization and then began looking after the HR Department. He is currently managing the HR functions as well as sales at Ahmedabad.

He is hardworking and open to taking up multiple responsibilities. He has recently added another feather to his cap by passing the Custom G card Exam.

Do wish this expert all-rounder on 9327019438 and add some cheer to his day.
