Teacher's Day

"A teacher affects eternity;
he can never tell where his influence stops." - Henry Adams

An Eternal Ode to Guru

Indian mythology states that, Lord Shiva reveals to Parvati the inner secrets of the quest for Supreme Knowledge and the indispensability of a Guru in this journey. The 'Sampoorna Guru' (Absolute Guru) is none other than the Supreme Brahman (The Almighty) and it is before this all-encompassing power that Siva reverentially bows.

The truths revealed by Shiva to Parvati years ago stand greatly relevant even today. In the present times, the Kali Yuga, the 'Guru Marga' (the way of the Guru) is the path to Self-Realisation. We need the guidance of teachers and mentors in all walks and stages of life and also the Divine presence of the 'Sampoorna Guru' to complete our life's karmic planes.

Guru, Teacher, Mentor is placed above all other relations in life.

5th September is celebrated as Teaches' Day as a mark of respect to Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, who was a staunch believer of education, and was a well-known diplomat, scholar and the President of India. When he was approached by his students and friends with a request to allow them to celebrate 5th September, his "Birthday" he replied saying, "Instead of celebrating my birthday separately, it would be my proud privilege if September 5th is observed as Teacher's Day". The request showed Dr. Radhakrishnan's love for the teaching profession. From then onwards, the day has been observed as Teacher's Day in India.

We should always respect our teachers. Teachers need encouragement and support from the community to feel that their devotion to students is appreciated.

"A good teacher is like a candle - it consumes itself to light the way for others."

Anyways.....

- ❖ People are illogical unreasonable and self-centered; love them anyway.
- ❖ If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives; do good anyway.
- ❖ If you are more successful than many of your close friends, you will win false friends and true enemies; don't feel bad, succeed anyway.
- ❖ The good that you do today, will be forgotten tomorrow; do good anyway.
- ❖ Honesty and openness makes you vulnerable and people take advantage of you; be honest anyway.
- ❖ The biggest man with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest man with the smallest mind; think big anyway.
- ❖ People favour underdogs but follow only top dogs; fight for a few underdogs anyway.
- ❖ What you spend years building, may be destroyed overnight; build anyway.
- ❖ People really need help, but may attack you if you help them; help them anyway.
- ❖ Give the world the best you have and they will kick you in the teeth; give the world the best that you have anyway.
