24 YEARS, 22 YARDS,
100 CENTURIES.
AN EPIC JOURNEY

24/04/1973 - an incredible sportsman & an even more incredible human being is born!

Master Blaster receiving early adulation

The little master always did carry a truck load on his head! Literally!

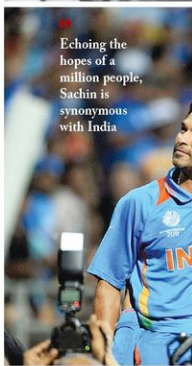

Sachin has spectacularly carried his Guru's invaluable legacy forward and has made him proud with every stroke of his bat and every curve of his ball. Here he is seen with Coach Sir Ramakant Achrekar

Sachin Tendulkar lies on the laps of his parents Ramesh and Rajni at their Sahitya Sahawas home in Bandra east in the late 1980s

Bowled over! With the 'Best Partnership' he has ever had - wife Anjali

Echoing the hopes of a million people, Sachin is synonymous with India

Receiving the Man of the Tournament trophy from Sir Garfield Sobers in Johannesburg, 2003

Jesting with the opponent

Flying high on the World Cup fever, Tendulkar fulfills his childhood dream on the sixth try

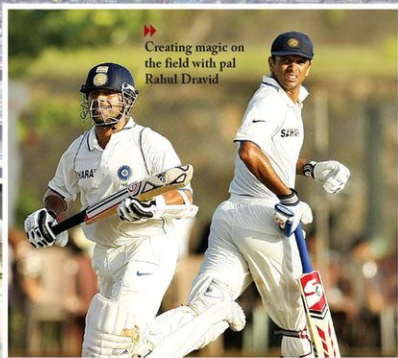

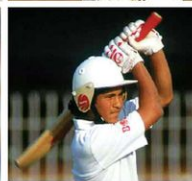

During the 1989 Tour of Pakistan with Mohammad Azharuddin and Kapil Dev

Sachin in his element

Creating magic on the field with pal Rahul Dravid

A stroke of brilliance!

A young Tendulkar on a winning streak

Family ties: Sachin with wife Anjali, children Sarah and Arjun

After a dispiriting World Cup campaign in 2007, a shiny new trophy after winning the Three test series 1-0 in England, puts a smile back on Tendulkar's face.

A thunderous applause for the doyen of cricket: Saaaachiiiiin Sachin!

India vs Zimbabwe at the Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai. Sachin is seen here with his childhood friend Vinod Kambli. This was also the first time Sachin visited a stadium.
